

MENS LEADERSHIP SUMMIT

"Whoever wants to be a leader among you must be your servant." - Mark 10:43

9AM-6PM Online Video Conference Saturday 17 July 2021

INVITE TO ALL MEN

Men need a challenge. The Men's Leadership Summit is not for the faint hearted. Keeping this in mind we are excited to ask you to join us for this historic men's gathering.

The Dads4Kids team is passionate about training men in servant leadership. The Summit is a unique training and mentoring opportunity.

Just recently Jordan Peterson said, talking about self-improvement and the mentoring process, that "The ultimate mentor is Christ". Edwin Louis Cole, one of the greatest leaders in the men's movement of the twentieth century and author of Maximized Manhood said, "Manhood and Christlikeness are Synonymous."

You will hear from three great speakers. Darren Lewis, founder of Fathering Adventures, who has been a pioneer in teaching Rites of Passage for both men and women.

Cindy McGarvie who spent eight years in the Australian Army and is the author of the breakthrough book called 'Lost Boys'. Dr Allan Meyer, creator of the Valiant Man Course and founder of Careforce LifeKeys will also join us.

The world is in desperate need of men who will lead by example with character and integrity. This can be hard. That's why we as men need the help of heaven and why we need each other. See you at the Men's Leadership Summit.

Keynote Speakers

Dr Allan Meyer

Dr Allan Meyer got his first degree from Monash University in Melbourne. Dr Meyer is the author of Valiant Man, has been married to Helen for 53 years. They have 4 children and 12 grandchildren. Together they founded Care Force Life Keys in 1992 which currently runs training courses in 20 nations around the world. Allan and Helen together created 15 courses addressing a range of issues including marriage and family, parenting, life skills, sexual abuse and sexual discipleship for both men and women. Allan is an inspirational speaker with an extremely dry wit. His two sports passions are golf and Australian Rules football.

Darren Lewis

Darren Lewis founded Fathering Adventures in 2008. Previously Darren had worked in the construction/consulting engineering industry for over 20 years. He agrees with what sociologists and anthropologists have said, "As goes the men; so, goes the society". This inspires him to lead men toward the path of authentic manhood, helping them to resolve wounds from their past, and equip them to lead successful lives as men. In 2011, Darren was awarded the title of Queensland Father of the Year. Darren has been married to his wife Melissa since 1991 and they have four adult sons.

Cindy McGarvie

Cindy McGarvie spent 8 years in the Australian Army and she is an ardent advocate for manhood. Last year she released a book called 'Lost Boys' in which she uses her military background and extensive research to illuminate the current cultural situation facing young men. She is a mother of three young men and deeply concerned about the discrimination men face today, the male suicide epidemic and the increasing high levels of fatherlessness our children are experiencing. Cindy has a message of encouragement for the modern male. She is currently the National Director and CEO of Youth for Christ.

Being a male is a matter of birth.
Being a man is a matter of choice.

Edwin Louis Cole

Summit Registration - Details & Logistics

Summit Strategy: The Men's Leadership Summit will be presented on Zoom which is the world's number one video conferencing platform. You will need a quiet spot with either a desktop, laptop or an iPad. Your digital device with a screen will need a microphone and camera attached or inbuilt for you to successfully attend the Summit. The format for the day is video presentations + Q&A, with small group discussions following the speaking sessions. The small group could be the 5-member group you book with or the online group you are allocated to if you are booking numbers less than five.

Time & Date: 9AM – 6PM AEST time Saturday 17 July 2021 with breaks for lunch, morning and afternoon tea. The Men's Leadership Summit is a full day commitment until the end with breaks. You must provide your own refreshments on the day. Full day attendance is required as the men in your group will be disadvantaged by your early absence.

Zoom Interface & Testing: Please upload your own FREE Zoom App on your device and test before hand to avoid disappointment on the day. Opportunity will be provided for a live test at 8PM AEST time on either Tuesday 13 July or Thursday 15 July 2021. Digital workbook and reading materials will be sent to each registrant three days prior to the Summit. We have been running men's groups across the nation through Zoom and they have been very well received by the participants.

Full Price: $59 each or discounted price for groups of five men $199. (Multiple digital locations or one physical location) Bookings close midnight Monday 12 July.

Attendees: The Mens Leadership Summit is suited for mature men over the age of 18 years. In some cases, young men from 16 – 17 years have attended with a father figure or guardian. This is the lowest age we will accept for the Men's Leadership Summit.

Benefits: Attendance at the Men's Leadership Summit will accredit you to receive a digital 'Certificate of Attendance' for your resume. Your participation in the day will also qualify you as a Level One accredited Courageous Fathering Course Facilitator. Courageous Fathering Course Facilitator.
